

Title:

Widecombe in the Moor, Devon

Shelfmark:

C908/31

Description:

Ernest talks about his early days on the farm and recalls how people were self-sufficient. Jordan and Leusdon (both just to the south of Widecombe) are nearby hamlets. Ashburton is a town to the southwest and Poundsgate a village to the south.

Lexis:

a-one = one; stean = earthenware pitcher or pot used for making and storing butter

Phonology:

H-dropping; rhoticity; <-Vt#> + V → [d]; <f-> → [v] (flour [vI9Y@`], 1914 [na:1ndi:nvO`:di:n], farm [vA`:m], farmer [vA`:m@`], for [v@`], beforehand [bIvO`:r/and], before [bIvO`:] and beautiful [bjY:dIv=L/]); also <s-> → [z] (sack [zak], you see [jY zi:], said [zEd] and somebody [zVmb@di]) and voiceless <th-> → [D] (things [DINz] and through [Dr/Y:])

MOUTH [9Y]; GOAT [o:]; FACE [e: ~ eI]; GOOSE [Y:]; START [A`:]; NORTH [O`:]; NURSE [@`:]; FOOT [Y]; LOT [A]; LETTER [@`]

note also there [DE@`] and here [I@`], thirteen [T@`:di:n], wasn't [wQd=n], boy [bVI], years [jI@`z], after [a:ft@`], half [a:f], it was [tw@z ~ twQz] and it wasn't [twQd=n], daughters [dO:d@`z], little [IId=L/], potatoes [p@te:d@z], butter [bVd@`], it would [twYd], in [i:n ~ In] and it is [tIz]

Grammar:

preposition, in + place-name → to (I was born up there to Jordan)

zero plural marker on nouns (two mile; two hundred and eighty pound of flour)

first person plural subject pronoun → us (us used to have to walk it; they don't have it in sacks like us used to have to carry; us used to have plenty of that in the summer; us used to have some wood; us didn't have no stoves nor nothing; us used to have more snow); masculine object pronoun → he (I went down there as a boy with he); → hine (I worked for hine for many years)

multiple negation (I wasn't hardly thirteen; they don't have nothing; we didn't used to burn very much coal or nothing then; us didn't have no stoves nor nothing)

preterite come (after I come home from the 1914 war; I worked one half for a little after I come home; when I come home from the war)

use of thou (us used to have some wood dost (thou) know?)

determiner, those → they (in they days)

zero auxiliary (now they _ got to get the car through)

note the use and phonetic quality of the utterance final discourse marker dost (thou) know? [dVst no:]